Mr Lincoln and many of his advisers seem to be more afraid of violating the Chicago platform, than they are of violating the provisions of the Constitution of the United States.

—Machias Union

This sort of flippancy passes for smartness with some—but its effect is not remarkable. The Republicans are accused of preserving party to country in the existing "emergency"—is not so They prefer their principles to compromise—and why? Simply because they believe their principles to be essential to the welfare and even to the very existence of the Union. This why they "stand by the Chicago platform" and in standing by that platform they do not diverge from the Constitution—THAT STANDS ALSO ON THE CONSTITUTION. Why then should they not be afraid of violating the Chicago platform"

From a Tra[illegible]
Monday, Jan[illegible]

Mr Editor

A few weeks since we were passing through the deep snow of Aroostook, now covered with its fourteen feet of Monson Lin. This was one of the many exhilarating days in Maine before the heavy rains of January, something unusual in mild winters. The new Academy was being finished complete, and we understand they have secured [illegible] from the State a share the fees of the students at Presque Isle. We hope they may be associated, as they deserve to be, in the enterprise and the students may reap the benefits.

Piscataquis county has some very beautiful towns. The valley of the Piscataquis in many respects one of the finest tracts of our good State. Its valley river in the State of its size over which there are so good bridges as here and they are all free. There are superior to the most of toll bridges that disgrace the noble Penobscot, Orono and Upper Hamilton. Many of these towns are better adapted to agricultural purposes than much of your own county.

The interest in the cause of Temperance in this county is very good. Several prominent gentlemen have gone and are doing good service. Hon J F Rice Member of Congress elect Mr Lemroe Coe, Dr Patten of the village and several Parkman Rev L P French of Dover Geo Cutler Esq of Dexter with others are rendering efficient aid. Success to the good work. In the northern parts of Maine some beautiful scenes present themselves to the eye. Here is one with a

MODERN SCENE.

On the evening of December 20th we were in Houlton village. The pure, white snow lay quietly in the street and among the buildings while the abundant robes of old winter adorned the hills and valleys around. Above all were the clear cold blue heavens bespangled with a mill on stars. By the peculiar tint of the atmosphere, and the exceeding brightness of the queen of night the starry depths were partially obscured. Her angel eyes beneath the radiance of heavenly smiles. The villagers were passing and repassing with quick and cheerful steps as old Boreas toiled triumphantly in all the scene. Nodest adds his step to the music of merry bell and the gleeful laugh of merrier belles in the sleigh. In the calm cold air were hundreds of columns of white smoke passing upwards until struck by the higher current, and then passing off eastward and hanging in a dense cloud over the site of the old forts, looking as if some great battle were just ended, and peace on earth and good will to man were being proclaimed while Luna rode in her chariot of beautiful light drawn by the invisible steeds of Eolus and smiled in queenly love[illegible] ness upon the fair scene, far, far below her feet. Who would have thought that just then, at the bedside of the dying year the nation was being "beset up" by a Palmetto galvanic battery, charged with the miasmic vapors from the grave of John C Calhoun!

THE INCOMING ADMINISTRATION—THE DUTY OF CONGRESS TO PROVIDE FOR IT The Tribune thus speaks of the probable change of policy after the 4th of March, and of the present duty of Congress:—

There is no longer a rational apprehension in any quarter that Mr Lincoln's Administration will wrong or imperil the South, unless the South chooses to be involved in the guilt of treason. We judge that it will not be advisable for either Southern or Northern people to be caught besieging United States forts defended by United States soldiers and displaying the United States flag, after Mr Lincoln shall have been inaugurated as President. At all events, we advise such as have any regard for their personal safety, not to be caught at that business after the 4th of March next. If there be any Armada yet unsailed, any arms yet unstolen, which the rebels have fixed covetous eyes upon, we advisedly advise them to seize soon or not seize at all. Investing Fort Pickens and planting battery after battery about Sumter may be time business as long as the investing forces are thirty or forty to one; but there is no certainty that this proposition can be sustained forever.

Nothing that there has clearly been such a [illegible] starving out of traitors that there will [illegible] day in the Union and right to [illegible] 200 working masonry in each house, we [illegible] foot 9 inches.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints

Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OAKLAND, Ind., Oct 1859

J. C. Ayer & Co. Gents: I feel it my duty to make known what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. I had a scrofulous affection of the blood, from which I suffered in various ways for years. Sometimes it broke out in ulcers on the hands and arms, and then would settle in my eyes, rendering me entirely blind. Two years ago it broke out on my head and face, and for a time I was terribly disfigured. I employed the best medical advice in the country, but got no relief, until I began to take your Sarsaparilla. I have now used six bottles, and my head and face are entirely free from sores. My sight, which was nearly gone, is fully restored, and I am in the enjoyment of excellent health. I am confident that I owe my life to the use of your medicine.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

FOR THE RELIEF AND
Cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This has now been in use for many years, during which time it has won the confidence of mankind to a degree unparalleled by any other medicine. Throughout the length and breadth of the land, there is not a village, scarcely a family, to be found, where its virtues have not been experienced, and where it has not performed wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints. Many of these are publicly known, and so clearly attested that they cannot be disputed. Even when the disease has baffled the skill of the physician, and human power could do no more, this remedy has often been found to possess the hidden power necessary to the cure. Hence, it is the duty of every one to have it when he cannot be sure but that he or his family may be attacked by the insidious diseases against which it protects. Keep it by you, and when the first symptoms appear, check them promptly, or they will soon be beyond the reach of any remedy.
